2nd Annual Tremaine Arkley Croquet Collection Prize

The Tremaine Arkley Croquet Collection Prize is awarded annually to the best research paper on a subject featured in the Tremaine Arkley Croquet Collection.

About the Tremaine Arkley Croquet Collection

The Tremaine Arkley Croquet Collection, donated to UBC in 2011 by Tremaine and Gail Arkley, is a unique fine art collection spanning from the 1850s to present. The collection includes oil paintings, watercolours, etchings, illustrations and other pieces of original fine art as well as photographs, prints, books, advertisements, comics and other materials related to croquet. Tremaine Arkley is a former member of the US National Croquet team. The collection can be viewed in person at UBC Library's Rare Books and Special Collections, or online at open.library.ubc.ca.

Deadline: April 30, 2017
Annual Value: $1,000 CDN

Eligibility

The prize is open to all UBC students. To be eligible for the Tremaine Arkley Croquet Collection Prize, candidates must submit a maximum 12 page paper that incorporates primary sources from the Tremaine Arkley Croquet Collection. Papers may focus on a range of subjects, including and not limited to: gender studies, athletics, history, art, and photography, but must use the Tremaine Arkley Croquet Collection in some capacity.

All papers should use Times New Roman 12 pt font, double spaced with 1 inch (2.54 cm) margins. Please include page numbers. A works cited list must be included to be eligible for the prize. All essays should include a cover page with your submission title, full name, mailing address, phone number and email address (if applicable.) Electronic submissions should be converted into PDF format and named with your last name followed by an underscore and "Arkley" (i.e. Last name_Arkley.pdf).

Submission deadline extended
