

UBC Library

YOUR STUDENT CARD IS YOUR LIBRARY CARD: Flip it over to locate your barcode. It will likely begin with 29424.

YOUR LIBRARY ACCOUNT: Login to renew books, pay fines, change your PIN, sign up for email notification and more.

CONNECT FROM ANYWHERE: Current UBC students can access Library resources from off-campus computers - anywhere, anytime. All you need is a valid Campus-Wide Login (CWL) or Library card barcode.

LIBRARY ONLINE COURSE RESERVES (LOCR): Access your course materials via LOCR at courses.library.ubc.ca.

LIBRARY LOAN AND MEDIA BOOKINGS: Can't find what you want? Interlibrary Loan (ILL) will order it for you from another library. You can also book videos or DVDs for individual or classroom presentation use.

Need help formatting your thesis? Thesis Formatting Support includes templates, weekly workshops and hands-on support.

Citation Management Tools are an essential part of the research process. Get help with tools such as RefWorks, Mendeley and Zotero to organize and cite your references.

Research can be a daunting task. The Graduate Student Workshop Series helps you with all the steps of the research process, including literature reviews, getting published and measuring your research publication impact.

The Qualitative and Quantitative Data Analysis Software Support team provides workshops and support for SPSS and NVivo. Get hands-on help and referrals to other campus resources when you need it. The Library also provides access to GIS resources, including hardware, software and tutorials - visit the Data/GIS lab or the computer lab (217 and 218).
