GIVE. VOLUNTEER. ACT.

ROUND ONE

milieu

demarche

Noun

Day-marche

Def: a political step or initiative

“She has been a courageous critic of the regime, but the timing of her demarche was terrible”

ROUX

Def: flour and fat cooked together and used as to thicken sauces

“In Cajun cuisine, roux is made with bacon fat or oil instead of butter and dark brown in color, which lends much richness of flavor, albeit less thickening power.”

gnathonic

[na-thon-ik]

Def: deceitfully flattering; sycophantic

Origin: C17: from Latin gnathōnicus, from Gnathō, such a character in the Eunuchus, Roman comedy by Terence

“His gnathonic comments were flattering lies”

salutatorian

Def: A salutatorian is a graduate who finished with the second highest rank in his or her class.

Being the salutatorian of your graduating class is a great honor.

ROUND TWO

escutcheon

is-cut-chen

1. a shield or emblem bearing a coat of arms.
2. a flat piece of metal for protection and often ornamentation, around a keyhole, door handle, or light switch.

The mansion on the Plaza Quiroga is a handsome stone structure of just two stories with an escutcheon on the wall and high windows

demagoguery

Dema-gog-ary

Def: impassioned appeals to the prejudices and emotions of the populace

“Demagoguery isn't based on reason, issues, and doing the right thing; it's based on stirring up fear and hatred to control people. For example, a politician who stirs up a fear of immigrants to distract from other issues is using demagoguery.”

sesquipedalian

,seskwəpəˈdālyən/

(of a word) polysyllabic; long.

"sesquipedalian surnames"

characterized by long words; long-winded.

"the sesquipedalian prose of scientific journals"

"More people know the sesquipedalian word

"antidisestablishmentarianism" than know what it means"
