Getting started at UBC Library

Visit the Library

Whether you are on campus for a day or just stopping by, the Library has so much for you to explore. As the second largest research library in Canada, our collections include nearly 7.8 million items. From the exceptional Chung Collection exhibition, to artwork in the Irving K. Barber Learning Centre, to guest access for computers and electronic resources, there is something for everyone.

For guided tours of the Library, visit: services.library.ubc.ca/facilities/guided-library-tours

Get started with a Library card

The Library is pleased to offer free community borrower privileges to UBC alumni who have obtained the Alumni Association A-Card. Community Library cards normally cost $120 per year.

Apply for your free A-Card in person from alumni UBC at the Alumni Centre, the UBC Welcome Centre at Brock Hall (Room 1200) or UBC Okanagan library.

Activate your A-Card to use as your Library card at the circulation desk in Koerner Library or UBC Okanagan Library, or online: services.library.ubc.ca

Remote access to most online resources is restricted by license agreements to current UBC students, faculty and staff only.

Alumni benefits

Did you know Alumni have free access to RefWorks (a web-based citation management program) and EBSCO Academic Search (more than 4,000 full-text journals)? Learn more at: services.library.ubc.ca

COLLECTIONS

The Library offers many open access resources, available to anyone, regardless of whether they have a Library card: resources.library.ubc.ca

Publicly-accessible Open Collections

The Library's Open Collections include digital photos, books, newspapers, maps, videos, theses and more. These publicly-accessible collections bring together locally created and managed content from the Library's open access repositories. Featured collections are the Uno Langmann Family Collection of British Columbia Photographs, UBC's First 100 Theses, and the Chung Collection. Explore now: open.library.ubc.ca

Rare Books and Special Collections

RBSC at the Library is home to rare books, archival materials, maps, photographs, broadsides and pamphlets, and much more. All of RBSC's collections are available to members of the UBC community and the public on request and weekly tours are also available. Highlights include the Wallace B. and Madeline H. Chung Collection, the Uno Langmann Family Collection of B.C. Photographs, the Japanese Canadian Research Collection, the Arkley Collection of Early and Historical Children's Literature, among others.

Make it a Videomatica night

With access to more than 28,000 DVDs, 4,000 VHS titles and 900 Blu-Rays, including cult favorites, Hollywood blockbusters and foreign films, view films from the comfort of your home or a Library branch. Select your movie list at: videomatica.library.ubc.ca

cIRcle

cIRcle is the University's online research repository that features some 60,000 articles, conference papers, theses and dissertations, multimedia and audio-visual materials, and more. Learn more: circle.ubc.ca
