

UBC Library

YOUR UBCCARD IS YOUR LIBRARY CARD: Flip it over to locate your barcode. It will likely begin with 29424.

YOUR LIBRARY ACCOUNT: Log in to renew books, pay fines, change your PIN, sign up for email notification and more.

CONNECT FROM ANYWHERE: Current UBC students can access Library resources from off-campus computers - anywhere, anytime. All you need is a valid Campus-Wide Login (CWL) or UBCcard barcode.

Access your course materials at courses.library.ubc.ca

LIBRARY LOAN AND MEDIA BOOKINGS: Can't find what you want? Interlibrary Loan (ILL) will order it for you from another library. You can also book videos or DVDs for individual or classroom presentation use. services.library.ubc.ca

OPEN COLLECTIONS: Explore a wealth of digital resources created and maintained by the Library that document diverse people, places and events: open.library.ubc.ca

UBC Library Research Commons

The Koerner Library Research Commons provides research support services by graduate students, for graduate students.

Walter C. Koerner Library, Level 2.

researchcommons.library.ubc.ca

Need help formatting your thesis? Thesis Formatting Support includes templates, weekly workshops and hands-on support.

Citation Management Tools are an essential part of the research process. Get help with tools such as RefWorks, Mendeley and Zotero to organize and cite your references.

Research can be a daunting task. The Graduate Student Workshop Series helps you with all the steps of the research process, including literature reviews, getting published and measuring your research publication impact.

The Qualitative and Quantitative Data Analysis Software Support team provides workshops and support for SPSS and NVivo. Get hands-on help and referrals to other campus resources when you need it. The Library also provides access to GIS resources, including hardware, software and tutorials - visit the Data/GIS lab or the computer lab (217 and 218).

ONLINE RESEARCH GUIDES

WORKSHOPS AND EVENTS

UBC Library offers research skills workshops on a number of topics at various times throughout the term. For a list of upcoming workshops visit: events.library.ubc.ca

CIRCLE

circle is UBC's digital repository for research and teaching materials created by the UBC community and its partners, openly accessible to anyone on the web. This is where you will ultimately submit your final thesis/dissertation: circle.ubc.ca

BEYOND THE THESIS/DISSERTATION

Check out the Building an Academic Profile guide for the skills and tools you need for discussing, interacting, presenting, and publishing your research. Learn more: help.library.ubc.ca/publishing-research

WRITING SUPPORT

The Centre for Writing and Scholarly Communication supports graduate-level writing. Book an appointment to see a graduate writing consultant, and consider joining a writing community to work on your academic and professional writing with the support of your peers. ## COPYRIGHT

Copyrighted materials are everywhere—you produce them, and you use them, every day.

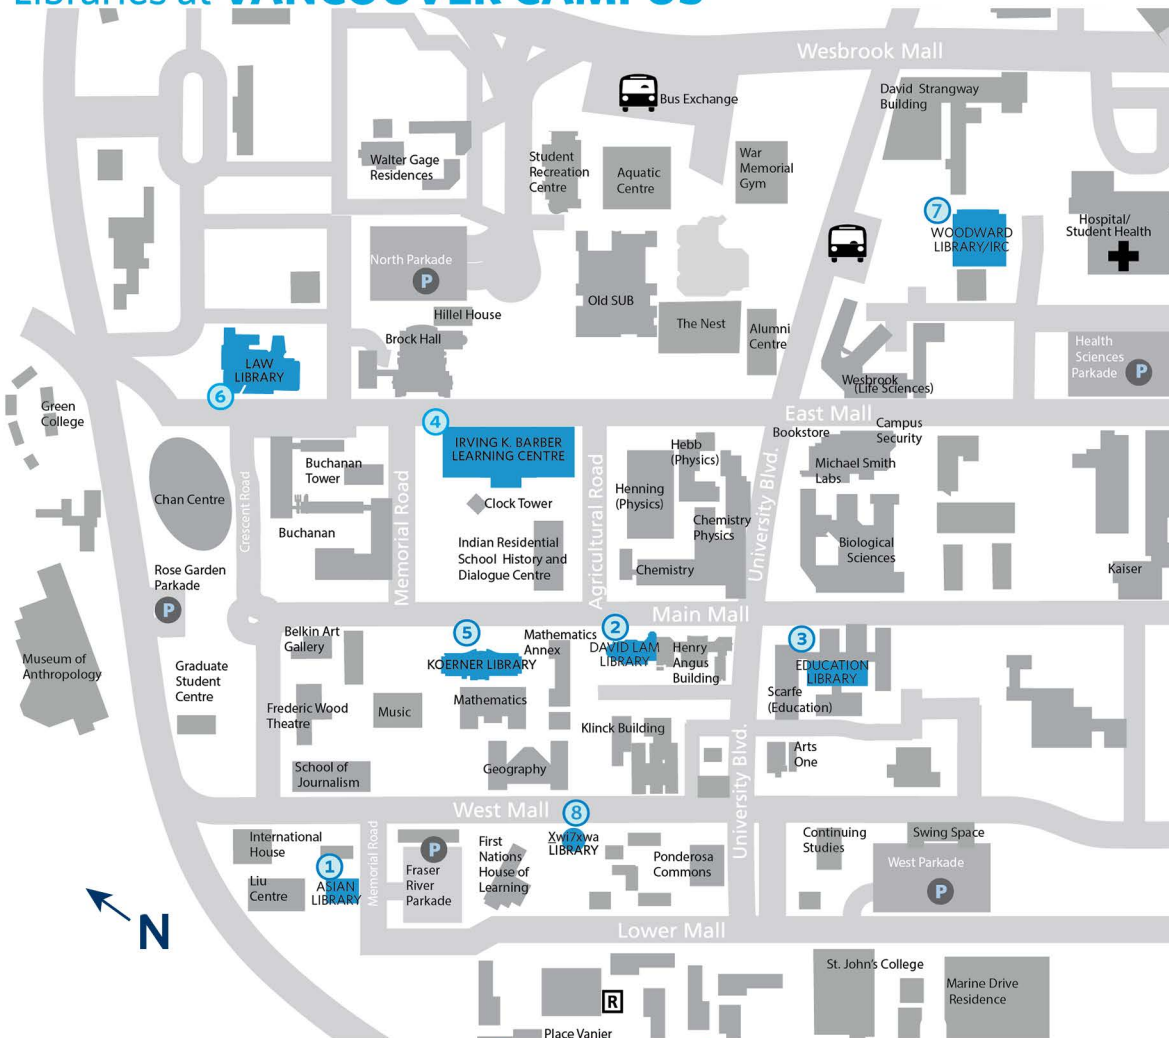

Be responsible in your research and studies: know what you can and cannot do under copyright law and how copyright considerations play an important role in the creation and dissemination of your thesis/dissertation.

Infringing copyright is a serious matter.
