WORKSHOPS AND EVENTS
UBC Library offers research skills workshops on a number of topics at various times throughout the term. For a list of upcoming workshops visit: events.library.ubc.ca

CIRCLE
circle is UBC’s open access digital repository for research and teaching materials created by the UBC community and its partners. If you are writing a thesis or dissertation, this is where you will ultimately submit: circle.ubc.ca

BEYOND THE THESIS/DISSERTATION
Check out the Building an Academic Profile guide for the skills and tools you need for discussing, interacting, presenting, and publishing your research. Learn more: help.library.ubc.ca/publishing-research

WRITING SUPPORT
The Centre for Writing and Scholarly Communication supports graduate-level writing. Book an appointment to see a graduate writing consultant, and consider joining a writing community to work on your academic and professional writing with the support of your peers. library.ubc.ca/writing

Copyright
Copyrighted materials are everywhere—you produce them, and you use them, every day.

Be responsible in your research and studies: know what you can and cannot do under copyright law and how copyright considerations play an important role in the creation and dissemination of your thesis/dissertation.

Infringing copyright is a serious matter.
